Education

Ph.D. Psychology (Cognitive) Rutgers University, May 2014
Thesis Resolving wh-quantifier ambiguities: Integrating theoretical and experimental perspectives.
Advisors: Julien Musolino & Viviane Déprez
Committee members: Kristen Syrett (Rutgers University), John Trueswell (University of Pennsylvania)

M.Sc. Psychology (Cognitive) Rutgers University, 2011

B.A. English Linguistics and Literary Studies Perm State University, Russia, 2007

Research interests

Pragmatic reasoning, computational models of meaning, ambiguity resolution, syntax-semantic interface, experimental linguistics, atypical language development, first and second language acquisition, digital humanities

Academic employment

Emmy Noether group leader April 2024 – present
Department of General and Computational Linguistics, University of Tübingen

Replacement professor of cognitive modeling (Vertretungsprofessur W2) 2023 – 2024
Institute of Cognitive Science, University of Osnabrück

Postdoctoral fellow 2018 - 2023
Research Training Group "Ambiguity: Production and Perception", Neuro-Cognitive Modeling Group, University of Tübingen

Visiting scholar 2016 – 2018
Department of Lingusitics, Wayne State University, Detroit, MI

Postdoctoral fellow, 50% 2015 – 2016
Insitute of Linguistics, University of Leipzig

Instructor 2009 – 2013
Department of Psychology, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, NJ

Russian language instructor 2008 - 2009
Department of German, Russian, and East European Languages and Literatures, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, NJ

English teacher 2007 – 2008
Inlingua Language School, Moscow, Russia

English teacher 2007 – 2008
Gymnasium 520, Moscow, Russia

English teacher 2004 – 2006
Public School 32, Perm, Russia

Certificates

Certificate program "Leadership in Academia, Industry, and Society" University of Tübingen, 2022
Certificate in Cognitive Science Rutgers University, 2013
Certificate in Language Learning and Teaching Rutgers University, 2012

Childcare responsibilities

Children born in May 2012 and June 2016; part-time employment 2014 - 2015, 2016 – 2018

Additional training

Bayesian Modeling for Cognitive Science Summer School. Amsterdam 2022
Fifth Summer School on Statistical Methods for Linguistics and Psychology (Bayesian track, Potsdam/online). 2021
European Summer School for Language, Logic, and Information (ESSLLI) 2021
Web Summer School for Language, Logic, and Information (NASSLLI). 2020
European Summer School for Language, Logic, and Information (ESSLLI). Riga 2019
Leipzig Spring School on Linguistic Diversity. 2006
St. Petersburg Institute of Linguistics, Cognition, and Culture. Summer school. 2005
St. Petersburg Institute of Linguistics, Cognition, and Culture. Summer school. 2004

Third-party Funding

SFB 1718, Project C4 with Gerhard Jäger. Understanding irony through the theory of common ground. €480.000 2025
Emmy Noether research group funding (€1.4 mln) 2024
Equal opport. grant for researchers working during the pandemic (€1.000) 2021
Athene-Program (support for early career female researchers) (€20.000) 2020
Paula Menyuk Travel Award for conference expenses, awarded at BUCLD 38. 2013
Paula Menyuk Travel Award for conference expenses, awarded at BUCLD 38. 2012
Undergraduate fellowship for seniors for academic excellence. 2006
Undergraduate federal fellowship of the Government of the Russian Federation. 2005
